Church services for June 2022

On 5th June, our villages, and places up and down the country, will be celebrating the 70th anniversary of the reign of Queen Elizabeth II with tea parties and barbecues. People will be welcomed, barriers broken down and new friendships made, some of which will last many years to come. The date of the Bank Holiday weekend was chosen to match the date of the Queen's coronation (2nd June 1953) – but it is a good day to have such a special event. This year, 5th June is also Pentecost, which is celebrated 50 days after Easter. Pentecost is the 3rd of the great Christian celebrations (Christmas, Easter and Pentecost). As the risen Christ ascended to heaven, Christians celebrate that, at Pentecost, they were given the gift of the Holy Spirit. This gift enables them to be 'the body of Christ on earth' – showing the love and hope of God that Jesus showed to us. On the day of Pentecost, in the book of the Acts of the Apostles, barriers were broken down as Jesus' disciples told the good news of God's love in a way that everyone understood.

It's a good day to celebrate our Queen, who has never hidden her active Christian faith. In her life she has brought love and hope into many lives. She has supported the work of those who strive to break down barriers, and raise up the weakest in our society and world. Central to all of this is her faith in a God who calls her to follow the steps of Jesus Christ with the help of the Holy Spirit.

We pray for a blessed time for our Queen, for fun and a great weekend for our villages, and for a sense of such love for all that this weekend makes a real difference in the lives of our community and our world.
