Medieval Fayre

Glebe Field, Great Stukeley.

When the news came out on the evening of 8th September that the Queen had died, the Medieval Fayre, planned for the 10th, was nearly cancelled. After much heart searching, discussion and consultation the PCC decided to go ahead as a tribute to her. Judging by the number of people who came and supported us, this seems to have been the right decision. We are very grateful to Dame Norma Major DBE for conducting the opening ceremony.

Many thanks to everyone involved – to those who helped with the preparation in the weeks and days beforehand, to the hard-working band who spent the morning putting up the bunting, arranging the tables and generally ensuring that everything was ready, to those who manned the stalls in the afternoon and finally to all those who came along in the afternoon. It was great to see people wearing costumes and entering into the spirit of the event.

After weeks of dry weather we looked anxiously at the dark clouds – and sure enough at midday there was a heavy shower of rain. Thankfully it ended in time for the opening by Dame Norma at 2 pm. Everyone who came seemed to enjoy the games and competitions. A light shower mid-afternoon simply drove many to take cover in the church and so the ladies serving teas and cakes did a roaring trade!

The PCC are very grateful to all who came and helped raise funds to maintain the historic parish church. The total is a marvellous £1108.80!

The competition winners are as follows –

Croquet – Yvone Mowczam

Aim for the Ladder – June Lee

Weight of the Bag of Rye (1lb 8oz) – Hazel Pawley

Hoopla – Bella Fry

Lost Treasure – Sheila Stephenson

Beans in 3 Marks – Celia

Bowling for the Pig – Jack?

Does anyone know Jack? If Jack could get in touch with Ann Monk 01480 456634, he can have his prize.

Bradbury House Open Day Media Release

More than 80 people came together on a hot day in August to celebrate with HCCN the amazing people who make one of Huntingdon's best kept secrets the place to be, at their new base at the MS Therapy Centre at Bradbury House (on Mayfield Road, next to the St John Ambulance centre).

Hunts Community Cancer Network is a local charity helping people across the Huntingdonshire region with a cancer diagnosis. "We are a hidden gem and want to raise awareness so that people tell their family and friends that we are there for them - after all, 1 in 2 people will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetime" said trustee and event organiser Gill Monsell.

HCCN and HCCN the charity were created as the result of the inspiration, friendship and energy of two remarkable women, Gini Melesi and Susan Moore. They met when Gini was helping Susan with her cancer treatment and Gini, then lead nurse pioneering a community-based oncology nursing team, found a treatment which extended Susan's life by several years.

Susan applied herself to what could be done for the people and families being helped by the HCCN nurses. Her top priority was to find a way for people with cancer to meet informally and be able to talk to each other, to be with people who really understood and shared their life experience of cancer.

Graham Moore, Susan's husband, remarked "It was wonderful to see Susan's work recognised with local and national awards but her unrealised ambition was to find that welcoming place that could be called a home for HCCN, where various activities could be delivered under one roof. Unfortunately, as with so many things, COVID got in the way of that happening, but now it has been achieved, and wonderfully!

Susan would have been delighted to see you all here today, and to see the way HCCN continues to thrive. Her ambition has been delivered in the achievement we celebrate today."

Cllr David Landon Cole, Mayor of Huntingdon, said of the event "HCCN is a wonderful organisation that offers people suffering from cancer support groups, yoga and exercise, community nursing and the opportunity to talk to someone who understands. If you'd like to find out more, they're on Facebook or at <https://www.hccnthecharity.org/>"

Five HCCN volunteers were recognised at Hunts Forum's volunteer awards and the Mayor was delighted to be able to present certificates to Janet and Anthony Button, Chris Moulds (represented by Carol George), Lynn Reader, and Jill Wiles (represented by Pat Burridge) for their remarkable contributions.

HCCN offers support before, during and after a cancer diagnosis. “Everything we do is underpinned by evidence that it helps people dealing with cancer – emotional wellbeing, exercise and healthy eating. Uniquely we offer pre-rehabilitation at the point of diagnosis. We also offer a full day of activities at Bradbury House in Huntingdon every Friday. Our Men’s Group meets every Wednesday morning at the Montagu Club Huntingdon and our Women’s Group meets every Wednesday evening at Bradbury House. We offer activities across Huntingdonshire” said trustee and programme manager Sallie Crawley.

HCCN needs volunteers to support the delivery of activities and spread the word. They also need fundraisers. Just get in touch if you can offer support at info@hccnthecharity.org

QUEENS PLATINUM JUBILEE DONATION TO HUNTINGDON SOCIETY FOR THE BLIND

Great Stukeley Village Hall Committee members Helen and David, along with Mary, Ruth and Ann, members of Hunts Blind and staff member Andrea, Social events Coordinator.

Great Stukeley villagers held a raffle along with a dance at the village hall during the Queens Jubilee weekend and decided to donate the £172 raised on the raffle to Huntingdonshire Society for the Blind. Hunts Blind hire the village hall monthly for their social group meetings and find the hall and the committee very accommodating. Andrea and the members were delighted to receive the cheque on behalf of the charity and the money raised will go towards future social events planned for the members.

Many thanks Andrea on behalf of Hunts Blind.

Stukeley Hotel & Pub News

We have had some popular events in August. Our Bingo & cocktail night was a huge success and Elvis joined us for music & BBQ over the bank holiday weekend. Looking ahead we will have a quiz on the last Sunday of every month from 6.30pm.

All welcome.

There will be live music events in October and November tbc.

You may have noticed that we are serving breakfast every Sunday morning between 9.30am & 11.30am. Come along and enjoy a cooked breakfast, tea/coffee & toast for £7.50.

We are still finding it difficult to recruit enough members of staff to allow us to go ahead with all the plans we have in mind but we hope that changes in the near future.

Our biggest news is the soon to be arrival of a building in the car park which we hope to use as a community shop ☺

We plan to sell “essentials” including newspapers, locally sourced fruit, veg & eggs, bread, tinned goods, dairy products and will of course try to accommodate any ideas given.

We have been asked to set up a parcel drop off point and hope you might stay for tea/coffee and cake on your visit.

Plans have been ongoing for many weeks now but we are almost there. We do however need the help of an electrician and plumber so if anyone in the village can help it would be much appreciated.

We will also be looking for volunteers to staff the shop initially until we are in the swing of things so if you could spare a couple of hours here and there please let us know. Thanks in advance & best wishes from Kathy, Rob & Staff

Some of the longed-for rain has finally arrived in our villages. Maybe there'll be enough to avert any crises for us. In other parts of the world, the crisis has already come. In Pakistan, and other places, it's come as too much rain, or erratic monsoons. In many parts of Africa and Asia there hasn't been enough rain; successive harvests have failed.

God's very first law to human beings was to care for creation – not to dominate it, but to cherish it, as God also loves the whole of creation. This harvest and this autumn we will be looking at what that means for us as God's people. Do come and join us – either on Sundays, particularly in our Harvest services, or, if you would like, with small study groups. Contact Fiona to find out more.
